

The Metropolitan Club Foundation Presents CMI 6-Credit Fall Workshop

Influence and the Art of Persuasion Dr. Rick Kirschner

Motivational speaker and communication skills trainer, Dr. Kirschner delivers artful programs on Business, Relationships and Life. This best-selling author, speaker and executive coach has been interviewed on hundreds of radio and television programs including CNBC, FOX and CBC. In this education session you will:

- Discover what motivates people to change their minds and behavior.
- Gain useful insights into how people actually think and feel.
- Learn to shape your ideas so they speak to the interests and needs of others.
- Become more calm, confident and relaxed when speaking up and speaking out.
- and much, much more!

If you've got the desire to become a more powerful communicator;
If you're tired of watching people who always get their way;
If you're ready to raise your game in shaping your organization, then you're ready for the empowering information found in Dr. Rick Kirschner's full day training program, Influence and The Art Of Persuasion.
