FREDERIC GOLDMANN

Fred Goldman, a cherished Met member for over 30 years at Wheatley Hills and later Deepdale, was passionate about golf, known for his humor, integrity, and dedication to mentoring Assistant Managers. By supporting CMAA's education programs, we honor Fred's legacy and foster the growth of future leaders in club management, a field he loved dearly.

MISCELLANEOUS

Scholarships are not guaranteed upon submission of an application. Awards are determined based on the availability of funds and can vary in amounts.

This is a graded scholarship, meaning the quality of all parts of the application will be evaluated. Thoughtful and thorough responses are encouraged to strengthen your submission.

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered, so please ensure all required materials are submitted before the deadline.

Previous winners are not eligible to apply.

Payments will be made in the form of a registration payment to CMAA. Scholarship needs to be used within 18 months.

Recipients will be announced at the 2024 Annual Meeting in November.
