

2012 Annual Club Managers Vendor Exposition

EYE notes that the 2012 Annual Club Managers Vendors Exposition and reception was well-attended and highly informative. EYE enjoyed the highly informative seminar program. Dawn M. Proc of VCT Communications helped attendees improve their member communications, and The Treiber Group led a session on the various types of insurance that clubs need to carry.

Bill Starbuck and Jim Kennedy of the Network Support Company instructed club managers on using new technologies like iPads and cloud computing. James Heggie III of Merrill Lynch Wealth Management helped attendees understand their retirement planning options, including IRAs and 401(k)s, while Frank McCathran, the Director of Education and Club Safety at WeatherBug, led a session about the various technologies available to club managers for tracking weather and informing members about incoming storms. The event was both informative and enjoyable for all attendees.

Show participants Stacey Patch, Jenn Cajthamí, Dawn Wagner and Kevin Moran network at the cocktail party.

Steve Maronian of Sweet Lisa's Exquisite Cakes

Sabina Zetrenne of Front of the House

Christina Daley and Stefanie Glasser from Gourmet Kitchen exhibit food for participants to sample

Lindsay and Larry Carter from Supreme Talent

Kevin Petri and Michael McCleary of Jonas Software & ClubSystems Group exhibit the latest technological offerings for clubs

The team at Send in the Clowns